This Sunday's Scripture Readings

First Reading

Isaiah 5:1-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The vineyard of the Lord God of hosts is the House of Israel.

Let me sing to my friend
the song of his love for his vineyard.
My friend had a vineyard
on a fertile hillside.
He dug the soil, cleared it of stones,
and planted choice vines in it.
In the middle he built a tower,
he dug a press there too.
He expected it to yield grapes,
but sour grapes were all that it gave.

And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem
and men of Judah,
I ask you to judge
between my vineyard and me.
What could I have done for my vineyard
that I have not done?
I expected it to yield grapes.
Why did it yield sour grapes instead?

Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard:
I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on,
and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on.
I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug;
overgrown by the briar and the thorn.
I will command the clouds
to rain no rain on it.
Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of hosts
is the House of Israel,
and the men of Judah
that chosen plant.
He expected justice, but found bloodshed,
integrity, but only a cry of distress.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 79:9. 12-16. 19-20. R. Is 5:7

(R.) The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel.

1. You brought a vine out of Egypt;
to plant it you drove out the nations.
It stretched out its branches to the sea,
to the Great River it stretched out its shoots. (R.)
2. Then why have you broken down its walls?
It is plucked by all who pass by.
It is ravaged by the boar of the forest,
devoured by the beasts of the field. (R.)
3. God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted. (R.)
4. And we shall never forsake you again:
give us life that we may call upon your name.
God of hosts, bring us back;
let your face shine on us and we shall be saved. (R.)

Second Reading

Philippians 4:6-9

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

Do these things and the God of peace will be with you.

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

See John 15:15

Alleluia, alleluia!
I call you friends, says the Lord,
because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 21:33-43

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

He leased his vineyard to other farmers.

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son," he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures:

It was the stone rejected by the builders
that became the keystone.
This was the Lord's doing
and it is wonderful to see?

I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

A Note on Liturgical Singing

In recent months, our Prayer and Worship Council has been discussing what parts of the Mass should be sung. In particular, we've been looked through parts of the document Musicam Sacram, which outlines which parts of the Mass should be sung over other parts.

The parts of the Mass that should be sung above all else are:

- In the entrance rites: the greeting of the priest together with the reply of the people; the prayer.
- In the Liturgy of the Word: the acclamations at the Gospel.
- In the Eucharistic Liturgy: the prayer over the offerings; the preface with its dialogue and the Sanctus; the final doxology of the Canon, the Lord's prayer with its introduction and embolism; the Pax Domini; the prayer after the Communion; the formulas of dismissal.

The following belong to the second most important place:

- the Kyrie, Gloria and Agnus Dei;
- the Creed;
- the prayer of the faithful.

The following are the least important:

- the songs at the Entrance and Communion processions;
- the songs after the Lesson or Epistle;
- the Alleluia before the Gospel;
- the song at the Offertory;
- the readings of Sacred Scripture, unless it seems more suitable to proclaim them without singing.

As you may have noticed, it seems that we have done this in reverse order! Moving forward, we are looking for ways to implement singing for those more significant parts of the Mass, without losing the musical parts that we are already doing.

"When one million children pray the Rosary, the world will change." - Saint Padre Pio

October: the Month of the Rosary

The Rosary is one of the Church's most powerful prayers—a contemplative journey through the lives of Jesus and Mary that anchors our hearts in the Gospel.

This devotion holds a special place in Catholic history. On October 7, 1571, Christian forces won a pivotal victory at the Battle of Lepanto while the faithful across Europe united in praying the Rosary. In gratitude, Pope St. Pius V established the feast of Our Lady of Victory, known today as the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. It stands as a lasting reminder of the spiritual protection found through Mary's intercession.

To mark the Month of the Holy Rosary, we will gather to pray the Rosary 30 minutes before every Mass throughout October, temporarily replacing our usual pre-Mass Liturgy of the Hours.

Whether you pray the Rosary daily or haven't picked up your beads in years, you are warmly invited to arrive early, join your voice with our parish community, and place your petitions in Our Lady's care.

The Promoters of Safeguarding continue to endorse a culture of safeguarding within the Parish.

Pope Leo - AI Safeguarding Issues

Pope Leo XIV views artificial intelligence (AI) as a powerful human creation that can bring significant benefits, but he argues that it must remain under human moral responsibility.

In 2025, he said AI could contribute to areas such as healthcare and scientific research, while warning that access to vast amounts of information should not be confused with genuine human intelligence or wisdom. Leo also emphasised the importance of protecting human dignity, particularly in safeguarding children and young people, warning that they are particularly vulnerable to manipulation through AI algorithms that can influence their decisions and preferences.

In his 2026 encyclical Magnifica Humanitas, Leo argues that AI should serve the common good rather than allow technology, profit, or efficiency to dominate human life. He is, however, concerned about AI being used in decisions involving employment, public services, privacy, and reputation, where biased programs could create discrimination and exclusion.

He calls for transparency, accountability, responsible governance, and meaningful human oversight. He uses the phrase "disarm AI" to mean preventing it from becoming an instrument of manipulation, domination, warfare, or concentrated power.

Overall, his position is that AI should serve humanity rather than replace or dominate it.

Next week - kids using AI assistants and AI companions.

Choir Expressions of Interest Open

"To sing is to pray twice." — St. Augustine

The Church teaches that the primary role of a choir is "to ensure the proper performance of the parts which belong to it" while encouraging the whole congregation to join in prayer through song (GIRM #103).

To support the sacred parts of the Mass with beauty, dignity, and reverence, we are seeking expressive and reliable singers to join our Parish Choir.

We are looking for vocalists who:

- Have a good ear for pitch and the ability to hold a vocal line or harmony.
- Are dedicated to regular rehearsals and Sunday Mass commitments.
- Desire to serve the parish through sacred music and liturgical ministry.

If you think that this is an opportunity that you are well-suited for, please fill out the form at the link

Did you know?

In our daily lives, we readily visit a doctor when our bodies are ill. Yet, we often hesitate to seek that same healing for our souls.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation—Confession—is not a tribunal of condemnation, but a vessel of divine mercy. Christ appointed priests as his delegates precisely so that "...in them the faithful may see Our Lord Himself, and through their voice hear His comforting words: 'Son, be of good cheer, thy sins are forgiven thee.'"

Confession is necessary for our life for three essential reasons:

- Restoring Life to the Soul: Just as a dead body cannot heal itself, a soul deadened by mortal sin cannot restore its own life. Confession is the remedy instituted by Christ to wash the soul clean, restore sanctifying grace, and reopen the path to Holy Communion.
- A Medicine for Weakness: For everyday (venial) faults, the Sacrament acts as a powerful spiritual medicine. Trent notes that Confession not only cleanses past guilt but bestows divine strength to preserve us from future falls.
- True Peace of Conscience: The primary fruit of a good Confession is "tranquility of conscience and deep consolation of spirit." Naming our sins aloud lifts the heavy burden of hidden guilt, replacing it with Christ's peace.

God never tires of forgiving us; we only tire of asking. If it has been a month, a year, or a decade since your last Confession, do not hesitate. Step into the confessional and allow Christ to heal your soul.

Parish Reconciliation Time: Saturday at 10am

For further reading, see the Catechism of Trent on Penance.
